

Emmanuel DUPUY is President of the Institute European Perspective & Security - IPSE (<https://www.facebook.com/Institut.Prospective.Securite.Europe/>), a think tank focused on track-two diplomacy and strategic prospective analysis, located in Paris, Brussels and Rabat. He is an associate Professor at Paris-Sud University, specialized in war and security studies in Africa and the MENA region. He is also a researcher associated to several institutes or research centres, working on military and strategic studies (China as a Special Researcher of Ningbo Maritime Silk Road Institute). He is also the Delegate-General of the French Centrist Party, in charge of International Affairs.